

January 2010

Dear Friends of Congregation Kehillath Israel,

Congregation Kehillath Israel is a vibrant Conservative synagogue that promotes a Jewish community that is accepting, wise, morally powerful, and intellectually alive. Located at 384 Harvard Street in Brookline, Massachusetts, Congregation Kehillath Israel is a traditional yet egalitarian congregation where a diverse group of members come together to pray, learn and find community. The synagogue creates for its membership a culture which is engaging, accepting, and deriving of vigor from the gifts of an ever-widening circle.

On Sunday, March 14, 2010, Congregation Kehillath Israel is hosting a dinner and auction gala to celebrate and honor its new structure. To sustain its commitments and to advance its mission, Congregation Kehillath Israel needs your support. We are reaching out to individuals and local businesses to consider giving a donation of goods and services, or buying an advertisement in the auction program. Your tax-deductible donation helps to ensure that we continue to meet our goal of providing learning, strength and support for our members and the greater community.

We thank you in advance for your generosity, and for your convenience we have enclosed the donation form to be returned by February 15, 2010. For a donation of goods and services, please complete and return Form #1.

Here at Congregation Kehillath Israel, we invite you to join us for a memorable evening; we thank you for your time and support.
